Gift giving to individuals through local charitable organizations (formerly Giving Tree): All gifts and a description of each organization is noted in a SignUpGenius. Click on one of the organizations to see the wish lists New Generations of Fairfax County, Second Story, Retired Oblates, The Lamb Center, Retired Sisters of St. Joseph in Chestnut Hill, and Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Click through the tabs at the top of the SignUpGenius to see each organization. Contact: Chris Desmarais chrisdesmarais526@gmail.com & Theresa Caputy ctlc26@aol.com with any questions.

Monetary Donations can be given for the following, please note in the memo line your desire:

Volunteer Opportunities: Volunteers are needed every December to help with the logistics of organizing and delivering gifts. Please click here for the SignUpGenius to volunteer www.signupgenius.com/go/30e044ea8a72ea7fc1-volunteer5.

Christmas Mass Schedule: Prior to 2016, the two early Christmas Eve Masses were ticketed only to School and CCF families, and there were overflow Masses in DeSales Hall. In 2017, we opened up the Masses to all parishioners and added an additional Christmas Eve Mass. However, because of the significant demand to attend these Masses, signup was still required for every person, and there were no overflow Masses. The church and parking lot have limited capacity per Mass. In 2019, we did not have a ticket system, which proved NOT to be a success. The number of people in the Church was over capacity limits, and getting into and out of Mass was highly unsafe in the Narthex and in the parking lot. During COVID, we used SignUpGenius for signing up for Mass, and it went exceptionally well, so we will be using that process again this year.

Signup will be on a first-come, first-served basis for ALL Masses. The link to signup was sent to all parishioners and went live on Dec. 13th at 9 am. The signup will then be open to non-parishioners on Monday, December 20th and will be posted on the website at www.olgcva.org/liturgy-worship/christmas.

The 4pm Mass on Christmas Eve will be livestreamed on www.youtube.com/c/StreamingOLGC/.

Mass Schedule:

Fri. 12/24, Christmas Eve, 4pm (live-stream), 6pm, 8pm & 10pm

Sat. 12/25, Christmas Day, 8am, 10am (bilingual), & 12noon

Parish Updates

OLGC Inclement Weather Policy: Please check webpage for updates. In case of inclement weather, we follow the Fairfax County Public Schools schedule, which is announced on TV, radio, and www.fcps.edu. We will also post the announcement on the school and church websites. This includes closures, delayed openings, or afternoon/evening activities being canceled.

On full closure days, OLGC will follow the announcement and take the day off as a snow day. If inclement weather days become numerous or run consecutively, the decision for OLGC School to eLearn will be made by the OLGC Administrative Team and that decision will be communicated to OLGC School families via email and text. Announcements will also be posted on the school website. When OLGC School is closed, all activities on campus are canceled for the entire day, except for the celebration of Mass (the church will be closed after Mass). All are advised to use extreme caution when making the decision about attending Mass and keep in mind your personal safety and the safety of others. If you decide to attend Mass, please enter through the Niblick entrance. The lower parking lot and bell tower lot will be plowed first.

All Zoom scheduled classes, meetings, and activities will take place no matter the weather, as long as the facilitator has electricity and internet.

On 2-hour delay days, OLGC School will follow the announcement and open at 10am. Students may be dropped off no earlier than 9:30am and we will follow the inclement weather carpool process. OLGC Church offices will open at 11am and any activities scheduled after that time will proceed as scheduled.

If FCPS is not in session on an inclement weather day, OLGC will make the decision. OLGC School parents will receive an email message from OLGC on school days and announcements will also be posted on the school and church websites. You can sign up for FCPS News You Choose to subscribe and receive emails of Delayed Openings and School Closings. Due to the speed of updating, the official @FCPSnews Twitter account is generally the first and fastest mode of communication.

Lois Steffensen had been a parishioner since 1969 and was active with the widowers' support group and is an example of someone who exemplified Live Jesus! After her graduation from St. Regis College, a Catholic women-only college at the time, she taught second grade for one year. As a military spouse, she became an expert at creating a new home for her family in each of the 17 locations (both in the US and abroad) to which her husband was assigned throughout his career with the US Air Force. After his death, she was proud to have lived independently in Vienna and was a dedicated volunteer at Fairfax Hospital for 25 years, logging 4,258 hours of service. Given her abiding Catholic faith and half-century attendance at OLGC, her family knew a gift to OLGC would be a loving tribute. Because of her interest in education, the gift went toward tuition for an elementary-aged student.

If you would like to nominate someone, please send their name and why they should be highlighted to info@olgcv.org.

Christmas Letter - 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Today is born our Savior, Christ the Lord (Lk 2:11).

How blessed are we to celebrate with profound joy the birth of Jesus, Son of God and Son of Mary and Joseph! He is "Light from Light," and for more than 2,000 years, we have walked in the light that he brought the world at his birth.

Born in the midst of darkness, Jesus' light heals the world. He calls us in turn to carry that light and, by his grace, to illuminate a world in desperate need of his compassion, love and healing. The Wise Men followed a star shining in the sky, and, because of their trust and faithfulness, they saw the face of Christ. Likewise, each time we choose to follow the Lord and share his light, he transforms us little by little, and we grow closer to the newborn King, the King of Kings.

As we reflect on the challenges we have experienced this past year, we should consider whether we journey through our circumstances like the Wise Men, journeying closer to God in trust. This Christmas season, reflect on the word Emmanuel, which means "God with us." No matter our challenges and experiences, God is with us and wants to accompany us on our earthly journey.

Throughout this Christmas season and into the coming year, we have a unique opportunity to welcome Christ into our lives more deeply. In anticipation of our Golden Jubilee in 2024, I have called for two preparatory years in advance. The first year, which began on November 21, is devoted to the Eucharist. I encourage you to participate in one of the many 40 Hours Eucharistic devotions taking place throughout the Diocese this Christmas season. In adoration of Our Lord, we remember that he truly is with us—he is Emmanuel.

At this time of great joy and celebration, let us ask Our Lord to help us grow in love of him and of our neighbor and to trust in him just as the Wise Men trusted in him. He is our Light, our God.

Please be assured of my prayers for you, and may the peace and abundant blessings that only Jesus can give be yours at Christmas, throughout the New Year, and always.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge
Bishop of Arlington

FOR UNTO US A CHILD IS BORN – May Christmas fill your home with light and your heart with love! And may the very special birthday we'll be celebrating at the end of this week find you surrounded with those nearest and dearest! Merry Christmas!

A REFLECTION ON CHRISTMAS - I'm not sure many have had the same experience that's been mine each December as we wait for the day of Jesus's birth. Every year the strongest memories I have of this time are those of my childhood. It was a magical month of anticipation and preparation. Santa Claus figured pretty heavily in my early years until my mother, totally out of patience with my expectations, told me at about 2 pm on December 24, that there was no Santa Claus. I was devastated. (She could have waited until July, right?) Since then, I've been wistful, loving the idea of this magical figure who showed up with presents.

Aside from that, I remember that there was much, much less "hype:" about Christmas. There were only a couple of gifts per person under the tree. In the 1930's, as our country tried to work its way out of the Great Depression, there wasn't much money to be had. In our house a sense of reverence and holiness was in the air. We had solemn traditions that went back generations in the family, which I observe in my own home to this day.

When I was downsizing, the very thought of disposing of our large collection of Christmas ornaments broke my heart. They represented my husband's and my life together, a new one purchased every year, chosen to commemorate a special event; so many memories! I left the disposal task to the end, and saved the most precious ornaments – the very few that survived both of our childhoods up to now and the ones made by our children and grandchildren. There are paper stars, thread spools covered with foil that became bells, the half of a walnut shell with a bit of greenery, an intricate paper swan stapled together, and a fancy 4-sided paper ornament that's become a bit lopsided over the years.

All of this reminded me of the piece written years ago by American Humorist Erma Bombeck. Called "The Chimes", it makes my heart sing. You've seen it here before, but it bears repeating.

"Everything is in readiness. The tree is trimmed. The cards taped to the doorframe. The boxes stacked in glittering disarray under the tree. Why don't I hear chimes?

Remember the small boy who made the chimes ring in a fictional story years ago? As the legend went, the chimes would not ring unless a gift of love was placed on the altar. Kings and men of great wealth placed untold jewels on the altar, but year after year the church remained silent.

Then one Christmas Eve a small child in a tattered coat made his way down the aisle, and without anyone noticing he took off his coat and placed it on the altar. The chimes rang out joyously throughout the land to mark the loving gift of a small boy. I used to hear chimes. I heard them the year one of my sons gave me a tattered piece of construction paper on which he had crayoned two hands folded in prayer and a moving message, "Oh, come holy spit!"

I heard them the year I got a shoebox that held two baseball cards, and the gum was still with them. I heard them the Christmas they all got together and cleaned the garage.

They're all gone, aren't they? The years of the lace doilies fashioned into snowflakes, the hands traced in plaster of paris, the Christmas trees made of pipe cleaners, the thread spools that held small candles. They're gone. The chubby hands that clumsily used up two dollars' worth of paper to wrap a cork coaster are sophisticated enough to take a number and have the gift wrapped professionally. The childish decision of when to break the ceramic piggy bank with a hammer to spring the 59 cents is now resolved by a credit card. The muted thump of pajama-covered feet padding down the stairs has given way to the click of her knee-high fashion boots.

It'll be a good Christmas. We'll eat too much. Make a mess in the living room. Throw the warranties into the fire by mistake. Drive the dog crazy, taping bows to his tail. Return cookies to the plate with a bite out of them. Listen to Christmas music.

But, Lord, what I would give to bend low and receive a gift of toothpicks and library paste and hear the chimes one more time." (Erma Bombeck) Often the smallest, simplest things in life mean the most.' Merry Christmas!

ELDER WISDOM – "Life is made up, not of great sacrifices or duties, but of little things, in which smiles and kindness, and small obligations given habitually are what preserve the heart and secure comfort." (Humphry Davy)
