There is no School and the offices are closed Monday, September 6 for the Labor Day Holiday. Mass will be at 9am in the Church and then the Church will be closed.

On Wednesdays, the Parish 8:30am Mass will be in the Chapel and the School Mass will be celebrated in the Church. Unfortunately at this time only students and faculty are able to attend the School Mass. We ask parishioners to enter through the main doors of the Narthex as we will be using the side entrances for the students.

The Sunday 10am Mass and the Wednesday 8:30am School Mass are live-streamed. Participate virtually on our website www.olgcva.org/live or on our YouTube Channel www.youtube.com/channel/UCjlaNF7IIY4lrWCgSVzVtDw.

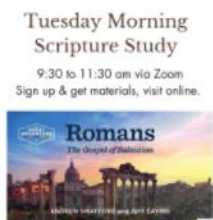

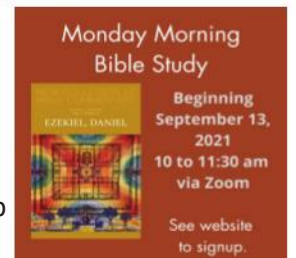

We ask you to prayerfully consider wearing a mask when attending Mass, including individuals fully vaccinated against COVID-19, as the number of COVID-19 cases continues to increase with the spread of the Delta variant, the number of breakthrough cases rising, and due to children under the age of 12 unable to be vaccinated.

Parish Updates & Events

Seasoned Citizen Luncheon: Thurs. Sept. 16th 12noon Plans are in the works for the first luncheon for OLGC Seniors in a very, very long time. It's going to be "Cibo e Amici – Food and Friends", yes, an Italian theme that's always been a popular one during our gathering season. As always, it will be in DeSales Hall on Thursday, September 16th. Doors open at 12Noon. We are trying a new way to RSVP. Since many of you are used to SignUpGenius. Please use this link to RSVP www.signupgenius.com/go/30e044ea8a72ea7fc1-seasoned or email Heidi at Heidi.snyder@verizon.net or call/text her at 703.919.7382.

This will be a wonderful time for us to reconnect with one another with plenty of time for visiting, and hope you'll join us for the first of what we hope will be a full season of events.

Funeral Luncheon Volunteers: Our Martha Ministry of providing Funeral Luncheons is reemerging and evolving after a hiatus during the Covid crisis. Would you like to participate in this lovely ministry of service to the grieving? There are two ways you can serve; either baking or providing a dessert and volunteering to serve at the luncheon or both. Most funerals are held midday on weekdays with an occasional Saturday funeral. This ministry gives families some peace of mind at a time of sorrow and distress. OLGC will provide sandwiches, and vegetable and fruit platters for our guests. Please use this link to be added to our Funeral Luncheon Ministry Roster www.signupgenius.com/go/30e044ea8a72ea7fc1-funeral5.

We currently do not have any Masses available for intentions at OLGC for the rest of 2021. The Mass Intention book for 2022 will open in November. Consider a Mass intention or enrollment at the DeSales Ctr in Child. MD or a Devotional Candle. One of the Church's earliest traditions is to burn candles to offer prayers to God. To "light a candle for someone" indicates one's intention to say a prayer for another person, and the candle symbolizes that prayer. For a donation of $25, you have the opportunity to have the candle burn for a week contact Maria Romero, welcome@olgcv.org, 703.896.7419 or use the buttons on this webpage www.olgcv.org/liturgy-worship/devotions.

We bring your attention to the new update from the CDC, Commonwealth, and Fairfax County and ask you to consider their latest recommendations when attending Mass at OLG. Based on updated guidance released by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) last week, the Fairfax County Health Department recommends that everyone, including individuals fully vaccinated against COVID-19, wear a mask in public indoor settings. As the number of COVID-19 cases continues to increase with the spread of the Delta variant, this recommendation is based on the Fairfax Health District moving from moderate level of COVID-19 transmission to substantial transmission. All individuals in Virginia who are 12 or older are eligible to receive a free COVID-19 vaccine. Appointments are available www.fairfaxcounty.gov/health/novel-coronavirus/vaccine.

SEASONED CITIZENS LUNCHEON – This is the second call for the first luncheon of the 2021/22 season for OLGC Seniors, to be held on Thursday, September 16. It will be in DeSales Hall, where the doors will open at 12 Noon. The menu has an Italian theme, “Cibo e Amici” (Food and Friends), which means it will be a time for not only enjoying those delicious dishes from Italy but also visiting and catching up with your friends. The pandemic has done a number on us, for sure, and we’ve missed being able to relax and reconnect with those familiar faces. We hope you’ll come and ease back into the friendships you had in the past. RSVP online at the parish website www.olgcva.org or email Heidi.snyder@verizon.net or call/text 703-919-7382.

BEGIN SEPTEMBER WITH A SMILE – Let’s begin this new month with a little bit of fun. Someone sent this to me recently, and I’d like to share it with you. A 5th grade teacher in a Christian school asked her class to look at TV commercials and see if they could use them in 20 ways to communicate ideas about God. Here are some of the results.

God is: like Bayer Aspirin, He works miracles. Like Ford, He’s got a better idea. Like Coke, He’s the real thing. Like Hallmark Cards, He cares enough to send the very best. Like Tide, He gets the stains out others leave behind. Like General Electric, He brings good things to life. Like Walmart, He has everything. Like Alka Seltzer, try Him, you’ll like Him.

God Is: like Scotch Tape, you can’t see Him, but you know He’s there. Like Delta, He’s ready when you are. Like Allstate, you’re in good hands with Him. Like VO-5 Hair Spray, He holds through all kinds of weather. Like Dial Soap, aren’t you glad you have Him? Don’t you wish everybody did? Like the U.S. Postal Service, neither snow, nor rain, nor heat nor gloom of night keep Him from the swift completion of His appointed rounds. Like Chevrolet, He’s the heartbeat of America. Like Maxwell House, good to the very last drop. Like Bounty, He’s the quicker picker upper...can handle the tough jobs. And He won’t fall apart on you. Like the Energizer Bunny, He keeps going, going and going. The New York ad agencies who came up with slogans for all of these products never dreamed how clever fifth graders could be!

LOST WALLET WOES – Can’t remember where you left it last or, worse, think it might have been stolen, and tracing your steps turns up empty? Here’s what you should do. First thing, contact your card issuers and the bank if you have a debit card. If you contact your bank within two business days of the loss, you’re responsible for a maximum of $50 in unauthorized purchases. After day 2 but before day 60, that liability jumps to up to $500. Don’t delay! Secondly, submit a police report. Even if the police can’t recover your wallet, filing a report with them can help safeguard your identity. It serves as evidence of your being the victim of a crime and assists your card companies in their fraud investigation. Request a hard copy for your records.

Next, contact the credit reporting bureaus – Experian, TransUnion or Equifax – to put a free fraud alert on your account that can be in effect for 12 months. Another thing to do is to change your locks if you kept an extra key in your wallet. Next, obtain a new driver’s license. Contact the DMV to request a replacement license. If your license was stolen, you may be asked to provide a copy of the police report. Then contact your health insurer if your health insurance card was in your wallet. Request a new ID number to protect yourself from medical identity theft (yes, it’s a thing!) I write this from experience, remembering what we had to go through after my husband’s wallet was stolen while we were vacationing abroad.

Lastly, keep these precautions in mind. Never keep your Social Security card in your wallet. While the Social Security Administration may send you a new card, you likely won’t get a new number. Guard that number as if it were gold! Pare the contents of your wallet to only what you use regularly. That includes keeping your seldom-used credit cards at home. Inventory everything in your wallet and keep copies of cards to have your account and contact numbers on hand. Lastly, closely monitor your credit card and bank statements. If you notice any suspicious activity, immediately contact your card issuer

ELDER WISDOM – I miss the 90’s when bread was still good for us, and no one knew what kale was.

Come pray the rosary with Our Lady of Good Counsel. We will gather each Sunday in Mary’s Garden at 9:15am to pray the rosary in English and at 11:15am to pray the rosary in Spanish. All are welcome.
