Outreach Fr. John Dolan. frdolan@olgcva.org, 703.938.2828

Dear Parishioners,

Due to the coronavirus and Fairfax County schools closed for the remainder of the school year, Food for Others is no longer distributing power packs. Consequently, we have also cancelled our spring power pack drive. Our plan is to hold a drive in early fall.

In the meantime, Food for Others is providing much needed food to needy families and are running low on many supplies. These include: canned chili, canned chicken and tuna, canned fruit, rice in 1-2 pd bags, spaghetti sauce, etc. They also need cardboard boxes. Current needs for Food for Others are listed on their website: www.foodforothers.org

If you are able and would like to donate, you may drop your items off at:

Food for Others
2938 Prosperity Avenue
Fairfax, Virginia 22031

Or you may order from vendors that have these supplies on hand and have them shipped directly to Food for Others.

Thank you,

Barb DeLisa and Jane Heishman

Some are infirm and need great assistance with the activities of daily living. We are proud to provide a dignified care that you would want for yourself or your loved ones. As you know, such care is costly, and we need your help. Your generosity can give care to an Oblate priest or brother in his final years. Your gift offers vital support for necessities, such as medications and nursing care. Your donation says thank you for their many years of service to OLGC and the various ministries served by the Oblates.*

Domingo de Ramos, Cristo entra como rey a Jerusalén Por Anwar Tapias Lakatt administrador@catolicosfirmesensufe.org Hoy celebramos el Domingo de Ramos, y con ello damos inicio a la Semana Santa. En este día conmemoramos la entrada triunfal de Cristo a Jerusalén. Cuando Cristo fue a entrar a Jerusalén, le dijo a sus Apóstoles: "Cuando se aproximaron a Jerusalén, al llegar a Betfagé, junto al monte de los Olivos, entonces envió Jesús a dos discípulos, 2 diciéndoles: «Id al pueblo que está enfrente de vosotros, y enseguida encontraréis un asna atada y un pollino con ella; desatadlos y traédme los. Y si alguien os dice algo, diréis: El Señor los necesita, pero enseguida los devolverá" (Mt 21, 1-3)

Semana Santa, caminar con Cristo Por Anwar Tapias Lakatt administrador@catolicosfirmesensufe.org Iniciamos la Semana Mayor, el tiempo en el cual vivimos la Pasión, Muerte y Resurrección de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo. Es un tiempo muy importante, en el cual como cristianos católicos estamos llamados a seguir los pasos de Jesús en los acontecimientos del Kerygma. Todo aquel que anhele la vida eterna, todo aquel que vislumbre el poder glorioso de la Resurrección, sabe que debe pasar por la Muerte primero. San Pablo nos hace comprender este caminar, este designio de Dios: Y si hemos muerto con Cristo, creemos que también viviremos con él (Rom 6, 8)

En esta entrada se unen varios elementos que nos ayudan a comprender el reinado de Cristo: Cita de la semana: "Pensemos solo en pasar bien el día presente. Entonces, cuando mañana haya llegado, se llamará hoy, y luego lo pensaremos ". ~ San Francisco de Sales

Tenemos los libros "La Palabra Entre Nosotros", folletos con información y material para el crecimiento espiritual para este tiempo de conversión e información adicional para meditar los cuales están disponibles en los estantes en la entrada principal de la iglesia y en el Centro de Bienvenida.

El Vía Crucis ha sido CANCELADO sin embargo, si desea venir y rezar el Vía Crucis la capilla estará abierta y los libros estarán disponibles para su uso. El Vía Crucis es un concepto que alude al recorrido que realizó Jesús desde que fue capturado hasta su crucifixión y su posterior sepultura. Vía Crucis es una expresión latina que puede traducirse como "camino a la cruz". Recemos el Vía Crucis y acompañemos a Jesús mientras meditamos de Su Pasión llevando en mente lograr la Resurrección.

Senior Moments: Marge Van Lierde, Gitkagirl@gmail.com, 571.831.3951

ATTENTION SEASONED CITIZENS! – Although the last luncheon for the seniors of Our Lady of Good Counsel is scheduled for April 23, the probability this event will be canceled is very high. Please check this space next week for a possible update. Thank you for your patience as we move through these difficult times of rapidly changing landscape!

UPDATE ON ADVENTURES IN LEARNING – Along with its other programs and services, please note that the April 16 Registration and Open House event for the Spring semester of Adventures in learning has also been canceled by the Shepherd's Center until further notice.

AGING IN PLACE – MOVE #5: CREATE AN ALTERNATIVE INCOME STREAM – This is the final installment in this five-part series for those of you who may be considering whether to stay in your homes or move to a retirement community.

If you can't swing a forever home and you still want to stay where you are, you need an alternative source of income. And an increasingly popular one among seniors is home sharing. Silvernest, a home-sharing service for older homeowners that matches them with housemates began just five years ago and already gets eight applications for every listing, says its founder, Wendi Burkhardt. She estimates older homeowners can make $12,000-$18,000 annually renting out a room. You do need to establish clear boundaries when you share your home, so it's best to draw up a formal lease arrangement.

You can use Silvernest if you're more comfortable with an agency, instead of Craigslist or other roommate advertising sites. Silvernest handles background checks and other services, or you can look for home-sharing programs in your community. It's possible there may be a local program that matches university students in the area looking for affordable housing with older homeowners.

If home-sharing isn't for you, consider a growing number of other alternative arrangements, such as an accessory dwelling unit. More communities throughout the country are relaxing zoning laws to allow for homeowners to build a second, small dwelling on their properties, such as a tiny house in the backyard. You can bring in extra income or house a family member. Whether you go that route, or take a more traditional path, with some planning and effort, you can find or create a forever home for your final years. (Thanks to Kiplinger's Retirement Report. Adapted from the February cover story written by Mary Kane.)

Following up on this series, please consider these questions when you're trying to make the decision whether to age in place or move to a retirement community: Do you feel isolated in your home? Do you lack relationships with your neighbors? Do you have difficulty driving? Do you have a hard time getting out of the house? Do you wish you had more of a social life? Do you find it difficult to keep up with home cleaning and maintenance? Do you need daily help with activities? If you answer "yes" to some of these questions, it may be time for a life-style upgrade. And remember, there's still a third option, and that is to move in with one of your children. I'm unable to speak to this one because it's so personal and sensitive. For some seniors, it's the perfect solution and certainly one to consider.

LOOKING AHEAD - HELP NEEDED! - Here's another event that's in limbo until an update is available about whether it will go forward as planned or be canceled. While we wait, I don't think it's a bad idea to tell you about it.

Roll up your sleeves and help the Shepherd's center on April 29 and 30, May 1 and 2 for the UUCF (Unitarian Universalist Church of Fairfax) Social Justice Yard Sale on Saturday, May 2. They're looking for 50 volunteers to help make the event a success. The Shepherd's Center receives funds based on its volunteer count and total hours the volunteers work. From personal experience, I can tell you that this is a lot of fun, especially when you come with one or two friends!

We unpacked and sorted through numerous boxes and bags of donations and found some very interesting items in the process. There's a table featuring unusual treasures.... silver, china and crystal items, jewelry and other collectibles, all at very good prices. A walk down the kitchen aisle will be nostalgic as you see vintage cookware and items we used back in the day – they should call this section "Memory Lane!" A benefit about volunteering is that once your shift is over, you can purchase, at the asking price, some things that might have caught your eye, and you don't have to buck any crowds. Call the Shepherd's Center, 703-281-0601 to tell them you'd like to help. You can come for a couple of hours, work the morning or afternoon shift, or stay the day, your choice!

Bishop Burbidge spreads the Gospel through interviews and discussions about faith, family, Catholic culture, recent events and he even answers questions from the faithful: www.arlingtondiocese.org/Bishop/On-the-Air/, www.arlingtondiocese.org/Searching-for-More-Podcast/ and www.catholicherald.com/Podcasts/Catholic_Herald_Podcast/.

The Arlington
Catholic Herald
Twenty-one counties. Seventy parishes. One faith.

Arlington Catholic Herald -The primary destination for timely, daily diocesan and Church news will be the Catholic Herald website, CatholicHerald.com. If you wish to receive weekly stories, videos and podcasts from the Catholic Herald, we will encourage subscriptions to our weekly e-newsletter.

The Office of Child Protection and Victim Assistance provides opportunities to report abuse, heal from abuse, find support, and works to ensure that all children and youth in programs throughout the diocese have a safe environment full of caring and responsible adults to watch over them in accordance with the requirements of the USCCB Charter on the Protection of Children www.arlingtondiocese.org/Child-Protection/.

On March 17th, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) announced the establishment of the Catholic Bishop Abuse Reporting Service www.arlingtondiocese.org/child-protection/catholic-bishop-abuse-reporting-service. This allows people to report an incident of sexual abuse and related misconduct by a bishop. The Catholic Bishop Abuse Reporting Service will receive and relay those reports to the proper Church authorities for investigation. Where a report includes a crime, such as the sexual abuse of a minor, it will also be reported to civil authorities. Otherwise, reports will be kept confidential. Visit ReportBishopAbuse.org or call (800) 276-1562.
