Quote of the Week: "We are not to ask for nor refuse those things that are purely indifferent, which only self-love would make us desire or refuse. Undoubtedly souls adopt an admirable practice who live prepared for whatever God wishes to do with them and in them, unconcerned about everything except to abide near him, to do and to endure faithfully whatever his Providence puts in their way at each moment." ~ St Jane de Chantal

Very Rev. Lewis S. Fiorelli, OSFS, Provincial and the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales invite you to make a resolution to attend the 17th Annual Live Jesus! event on Saturday, March 21, 2020, 8:00 am - 12:45 pm at OLGC Church & DeSales Hall.

"Seeking Unity by Living Jesus" by Rev. Brian Zumbrum, OSFS. In a world where gentleness is hard to find and divisions are getting more pronounced, we seek unity. Using the lens of Salesian Spirituality, we will explore ways to heal these divisions through getting proximate with those situations and God's children with whom we are not comfortable. In this work, we will discover the true power that our Spirituality offers us in the midst of brokenness and difficulty. Father Brian will share life changing experiences gained from his ministries at Nativity Prep and Salesianum High School.

"Friendship, Foundation, and Family" by Br. Dan Wisniewski, OSFS, Sr. Anne Elizabeth Eder, OSFS and Ms. Paula M. Riley. Brother Dan will address the benefits and challenges of friendships in difficult, divisive times. He will draw upon the teachings of Saint Francis de Sales on friendship and share his experiences maintaining friendships while working with college students and living in community.

Sr. Anne Elizabeth will guide us in our reflection on the struggles of a foundation in our Salesian tradition. She will explore how our Oblate founders, Blessed Louis Brisson and Saint Leonie Aviat, dealt with these challenges to build a vibrant community, allowing us to follow in their footsteps. These bonds of love create unity and strengthen each of us as we face challenges together, seeking what is right, true, and good in each person and situation.

Paula will explore the conflicts and complexities in her roles as wife, mother, sister, friend, professional, and volunteer. She will share how her faith and encounters with Salesian Spirituality have guided her through life's conflicts.

Pick up a flyer at the Welcome Desk or on the pamphlets racks outside the church.

Registration is required. Visit events.oblates.org/live-jesus/

Seven Deadly Sins, Seven Lively Virtues Tuesdays Feb 25th - April 7th During the Season of Lent, our Tuesday Scripture Study will be exploring Seven Deadly Sins, Seven Lively Virtues. Join Bishop Robert Barron for this presentation of the seven deadly sins, those great spiritual blocks that inhibit our flourishing in relationship with God and one another. Based on Dante's writings, the seven deadly sins correspond to the seven stories of Dante's Mt. Purgatory. Pride, envy, anger, sloth, gluttony, avarice and lust are all presented as patterns of dysfunction within us that lead to unhappiness. Bishop Barron shows us how to counteract these seven sinful patterns through a conscious process of opposition, known as the "seven lively virtues." These offer antidotes to each sin and help set us on the right path to healing and happiness. Study will take place on Tuesdays, February 25-April 7th, 9:15 am to 11:15 am, in St. Joseph Center, Brisson Room. For more info and to purchase the study guide, check out our website: www.olgcva.org/faith-formation/adults. Questions? Contact Amy Winkler, dre@olgcva.org, 703.896.7414.

The eighth grade Shakespeare Club recently celebrated the Epiphany by participating in their own "Twelfth Night" party, complete with the Elizabethan tradition of eating pieces of a "Twelfth Night" cake.

In Science Lab, the sixth grade made glow-in-the-dark slime to create 3D models of the solar system, seventh grade studied bird beak adaptations by testing the effectiveness of different beak types with a variety of food sources and eighth grade modeled radioactive decay of Carbon-14 using Skittles.

Mrs. Jewett's 4th grade math class had a great time this morning Escaping the Reindeer Farm by solving math challenges along the way. The students did a great job, worked well together, and had a great time. Table 2 even managed to escape within the time frame.

The Wildcat Fund Day of Giving is coming on February 12th - 13th ~ $30K in 30 Hours!

OLGC School and The Wildcat Fund Committee will once again host a Wildcat Day of Giving on February 12th-13th. Our goal is to raise $30,000 in 30 Hours! Families, parishioners, friends, and alumni are encouraged to participate from 8:00 a.m. on February 12th through 3:00 p.m. on February 13th. Gifts of any size will advance our School's mission and raise critical funding to ensure that we provide meaningful opportunities for our students and faculty.

This year, we ask you to consider all that our teachers do for our students. Teachers influence our students well beyond the school day. Although guiding a classroom is a huge part of a teacher's responsibility, their reach extends into the lives of our students, their families, and our community. Our teachers educate, inspire, cultivate, and affect positive change. They have a life-long impact.

For 30 hours in February, please open your hearts and show your love for our teachers! All funds raised during the Day of Giving will go towards "Mrs. Jewett's Toolbox for the Teachers." Principal Jewett will directly utilize these funds for Teacher Training and Continuing Education, Teacher Recognition, Recruitment Support, Teacher Appreciation, Professional Development, and Retention Initiatives. For more info visit, www.olgcschool.org/support/wildcatfund.

"The opportunity of doing great things does not come very often, but at every moment, we can do little acts with great love." - St. Francis de Sales

As followers of Christ, we are each called through our Baptism to serve our sisters and brothers in our parish, our community, our country, and the world. It is our hope that every parishioner is given the opportunity to discover and develop his/her God-given gifts. Please visit our Outreach webpage to see the variety of ways you can assist opportunities that are offered, discover where you fit in and see our listing of events <https://www.olgcva.org/outreach/serve>. For more information on the parish's efforts for Caring for our Common Home contact Fr. John Dolan, OSFS, Coordinator of Outreach Mission, frdolan@olgcva.org.

SEASONED CITIZENS LUNCHEON – This is the second call for the OLGC Luncheon on Thursday, February 13 at Noon in De Sales Hall. Let's hope for good weather! OLGC follows Fairfax County Public Schools' policy for winter weather cancellations. If Fairfax County schools are closed, this event will be canceled. If schools are delayed, the event will be held on time. Stay tuned to the news if we have that dreaded "wintery mix" or snow that day. For that reason, the luncheon will be more casual, but still delicious, featuring sandwiches, soup and sweet treats (it's the day before Valentine's Day, after all!) Ed Morahan will be back, by popular demand, to be the Bingo caller after the luncheon. Maybe this will be your lucky day and you'll leave with more in your wallet than you came with! Make your reservation with Bev MacDonald, OLGCSeniors@gmail.com or 703-281-4973.

ABOUT LONG-TERM CARE INSURANCE – There are so many different long-term care policies on the market, sometimes it becomes overwhelming. Whether you have such a policy, or whether you're considering purchasing one, here are some key terms to consider when looking at policy documents.

Benefit Amount. Often this is provided as a per-day amount for services covered under the policy, but some policies will provide it as a monthly aggregate. Nursing homes generally charge using a daily rate, so it's fairly easy to understand how much of the daily charge will be covered by long-term care insurance. The approximate daily rate for nursing home private care in Virginia is $283 per day but this can vary widely depending on a number of factors.

Policy Lifetime Maximum Benefit. Generally, long-term care policies will cap the aggregate amount of coverage to a specified dollar figure. The maximum benefit limit is the total that the insurance carrier will pay over the life of the policy. Usually, the higher the lifetime maximum, the higher the premium.

Types of Coverages. Often people think of long-term care services as synonymous with nursing home care, and in the case of Medicaid long-term care, that is all that is covered. Private, long-term care insurance policies often cover many more services, including assisted living (not covered by Medicaid) and home care. Some possible services a policy may include are: nursing home, assisted living facility, home and community-based care, homemaker services, durable medical equipment, care coordinator, respite care, hospice care, and alternate plan of care (this could include rehabilitation).

Waiting/Elimination Period. Many policies have a period of time that you'll need to receive care or services covered under the policy but during which time no benefits will be paid before the policy will start to provide coverage. The waiting time may vary depending on the policy and often those days may be covered by another policy or Medicare and will still count toward the elimination period.

Activities of Daily Living. Most policies require that before benefits are paid, you need assistance with at least two activities of daily living (ADLs), or that there be cognitive impairment. ADLs include bathing, dressing, toileting, transferring, continence and eating. Eligibility for Medicaid generally requires that the applicant be unable to perform four ADLs, or have some level of cognitive impairment. Therefore, long-term care insurance covers services far earlier than Medicaid.

Home and Community-Based Care. What this covers will vary significantly from policy to policy. Some policies may cover the care a family member provides, while others explicitly will not. Some cover homemaker type services, physical therapy, occupational therapy and a range of other services and supports. This can be a significant benefit to the insured, so it's important to understand these services fully when purchasing long-term care insurance or using it.

While these brief descriptions don't tell the whole story, they're helpful as a good start to understanding how this type of insurance works. (Many thanks to Elder Law attorney Susan K. Pollack of Needham Mitnick & Pollack, PLC.)

FREE INCOME TAX PREPARATION ASSISTANCE – AARP's TaxAide program offers assistance to low and moderate-income taxpayers, not just the elderly, and AARP membership isn't required. IRS-certified volunteers prepare both Federal and State returns and electronically file them free of charge. The AARP TaxAide site closest to OLGC is Sun Trust Bank of Vienna (near Anita's and Karen's Florist), 515 Maple Avenue. Use the entrance on the side of the bank building and take the elevator to the third floor. Beginning tomorrow, February 3, they will be open for business on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 10 am-2 pm (closed February 17). Due to space constraints, the site will not be open on Thursdays this year.

ELDER WISDOM – The brain is the most outstanding organ. It works 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, right from your birth until you fall in love.

Christian Stewardship

As Christians we are asked to view all of our gifts as blessings from God, nurturing them during our lifetime and returning them to our Heavenly Father with an increase. One way we can do that is to help our parish meet its future needs by including OLGC in your will. For more information, call the Diocesan Planned Giving Office at 703-841-3819 or visit www.arlingtondiocese.planyourlegacy.org.

A Call to be Holy God calls each of us to a vocation, the vocation to holiness. This vocation may look different for each person, but discovering it and living it out leads to our happiness and fulfillment. "May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God." Are you being called to love the Lord with an undivided heart as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life? Call Fr. Michael Isenberg, (703) 841-2514, or write: michael.isenberg@arlingtondiocese.org.
