Senior Moments

Marge Van Lierde, Gitkagirl@gmail.com, 571-831-3951

ENCORE MOMENTS – Last January “Encore Moments” was a feature among the month’s Senior Moments columns. It proved to be helpful for those new to OLGC and refreshed the memory of those of you who may have forgotten, or whose needs have changed. As the new year begins to unfold, some items from past columns will reappear as reminders of useful information. 2020 finds us sharing the most popular ones once again. Always at the top of the list is knowing what to do with old greeting cards. St. Jude’s Ranch for children continues to accept the fronts of greeting cards. They’re repurposed into new cards that are sold by the St. Jude’s Gift Shop. The guidelines are these: send only the fronts of cards with no handwriting on them. Due to licensing restrictions, Disney, Hallmark, and American Greetings cards cannot be used. Cards 5” X 7” or smaller are preferred, and all themes are welcomed. Mail the card fronts to St. Jude’s Ranch for Children Recycled Card Program, 100 St. Jude St., Boulder City, NV 89005. You can get more information and place an order for these repurposed cards by calling 877-977-7572.

Another popular service is that provided by the Shepherd’s Center of Oakton-Vienna (SCOV) to area seniors at no charge. In a nutshell, it offers transportation to medical appointments, local errands to the grocery store, pharmacy, library, etc., Friendly Callers and Visitors to those who are homebound, as well as minor home repairs (you provide the supplies.) There is also a strong Caregivers Support Group to those who look after family members with dementia, healthcare workshops aimed at issues concerning older folks, day trips and outings, quarterly luncheons (Lunch ‘n’ Life) where the food is great and the programs entertaining. Finally, there’s Adventures in Learning (AIL) which runs 3 semesters per year, providing an opportunity to socialize and improve brainpower with “no homework” classes!

Not only is the SCOV a service organization reaching out to assist local seniors, but its core is also made up of many volunteers, most of them seniors themselves, who commit to helping fulfill its mission, “Seniors Helping Seniors.” There are no fees involved except for trips, luncheons, and AIL, and they’re quite modest.

If you need assistance, all it takes is a phone call to 703-281-5038. At any time, our situations can change and we find we need assistance for perhaps a short period of time or for a longer-term. The SCOV stands ready to fill the gap. As well, it looks for volunteers to join the ranks of many others who enjoy great flexibility as to the days, frequency, and a number of hours they’re willing to provide rides, help out in the office, visit or call a lonely homebound person or fix that leaky faucet. In the end, it’s a win-win situation. Those in need are assisted, and volunteers come away feeling they got much more than they gave.

UNHAPPY WITH YOUR MEDICARE ADVANTAGE PLAN? – If you’re enrolled in a Medicare Advantage plan as of January 1 and not happy with your choice, you can make a one-time election to another Medicare Advantage plan or leave your Medicare Advantage plan and return to Original Medicare. Switching to Original Medicare also provides the opportunity to join a Medicare Prescription Drug plan. The extended deadline for these changes is March 31. Coverage begins the first day of the month after your enrollment form is received. Don’t hesitate to call the Virginia Insurance Counseling & Assistance Program (VICAP) at 703-324-5851 or visit www.fairfaxcountyh.gov/older-adults.

HAVE YOU ENROLLED? – Recently OLGC parishioners received a letter from our Pastor asking us to enroll in or update our donation information via Faith Direct. Electronic giving has become “the way to go” when it comes to how we support our church. Creating a Faith Direct account is simple. You can do it online or by mail, so you can give in a way that works best for you. You choose your credit/debit card or a bank account for the payment. Your weekly offertory amount will be processed once a month based on the number of Sundays in the month. You can manage all aspects of your account so you’re always in control of your donations. You’ll be able to support our church every week, whether you’re out of town or unable to attend Mass. Your information is protected, every transaction is secure, and your donations are automatically transferred to OLGC. As someone who has been using electronic giving for a number of years, I’d like to say that there has never been an error, never been a security issue and, best of all, I don’t have to remember anything! If you haven’t yet enrolled, perhaps this is the year you should choose it as an easy way of supporting our church.
