A Prayer for Vocations

"For the pillars of he earth are the Lord's,
And on them he has set the world." 1 Sam 2:8

God of Hope,
You are the source and force of all that gives life to the world.
You have allowed our Church to assist you in bringing life, justice, and peace to our brothers and sisters.
Please send us more ministers to continue the mission of your Son.
In a special way I pray for (N), I pray that their hearts be open to your invitation to serve our church in need of strong and gentle ministers of the Gospel.
May they grow in their understanding of how you are calling them forth through the needs of others and the strings of their own hearts.
Touch their imaginations so they may dream of the possibilities of this commitment to Christ especially as Oblates of St. Francis de Sales, pillars of gentle strength.

November: The Church Calls Us to Remember
You are invited this year, beginning Thurs., Nov. 1st (All Saints Day) to bring a photograph of a loved one who has died, to the Admin. Office for it to be placed on the Table of Remembrance located in the Sanctuary of the Church. The Tables will remain up through the month of November.

In addition, our Book of the Dead will be placed under the Paschal Candle in the rear of the church. You are encouraged to inscribe the name of your loved ones who have died. At the weekend Masses in November, we will remember all the names who are inscribed in this Book with a special intercession in the Prayer of the Faithful.

SPECIAL NOTICE: Mass Intentions – New Process this Year

We are now receiving Mass intentions for 2019. The process is slightly different from past years. Because of the limited number of Masses celebrated at OLGC and the overwhelming requests for Mass intentions, each individual will be limited to 3 intentions for Masses celebrated at OLGC. However, there are unlimited Mass intentions for Masses celebrated by the Oblates at the DeSales Oblates Residence in Childs.
Mass intention request forms are available at the Administration Building or online. Requests will be handled on a first-come-first-served basis.
For more information, contact Gerard Hall, 703-894-7411 or liturgy@olgcva.org.

Evening Prayer - Praying with and for the Parish
"When evening approaches and the day is already far spent, evening prayer is celebrated in order that 'we may give thanks for what has been given us, or what we have done well, during the day.'"
On Mon., Nov. 5th, at 7pm we will gather together as a parish community to pray Evening Prayer in the Chapel. This month's intention will be for the saints both in heaven and on earth. It will be followed by a light reception in the Narthex. For more information, please contact Gerard Hall at liturgy@olgcva.org.

Join us for our next Drafts with DeSales on Mon., Nov. 5 following Evening Prayer. Evening Prayer will begin at 7pm in the Chapel and Drafts with DeSales will follow at 7:30 pm in DeSales Hall. Come, grab a beer, meet some other young professionals, and explore Salesian themes within our faith tradition!

In November, the Church calls us to pray for those who have died and for those who mourn their passing.
On Wed., Nov. 7th, at 7pm we will gather at Mass in a special way to celebrate the lives of those members of our families, friends, and faith community who died this past year, and to seek God's presence in our time of grief.
You are invited to join the Community of Our Lady of Good Counsel and the Oblates of Saint Francis de Sales as we support one another in prayer and ask God to welcome our deceased loved ones into the Kingdom of Heaven.

Liturgy/Ministry of Care | Gerard Hall liturgy@olgcva.org, 703-896-7411

Musicians Needed - Do you play the trumpet? The flute? Or another instrument?

Do you play the trumpet? The flute? Or another instrument? Are you looking for a way to keep your music skills up and at the same time serve OLGC? Are you in high school band or orchestra? Have you answered YES to one or more of these questions? Then keep reading!

We are looking for instrumentalists to join the music ministry at OLGC. We are looking for trumpeters, flautists, violinists, and other musicians to join 11:15am music ministry. Rehearsals are Thursday evenings at 7:30pm and/or 10:30am in Sunday. Both held in the music room in the lower level of De Sales Hall. Interested? Please contact Gerard Hall @ liturgy@olgcva.org.

Altar Server Training Altar Servers assist the priest and, in particular, prepare the altar and the vessels at Mass. The role of server is integral to the normal celebration of the Mass.

All young men and women, grade 3 through 8 are invited to become an altar server. Servers should be mature enough to understand their responsibilities and to carry them out well and with appropriate reverence. They should have already received Holy Communion for the first time and normally receive the Eucharist whenever they participate in the liturgy.

Servers are prepared for this ministry through initial training and on-going formation offered in the parish. Training will take place on Saturday, November 3rd beginning at 9:30am in the Church and on Thurs., November 8th beginning at 3:15pm. Both trainings are held in the church. Only one session is required. At least one parent must attend. To sign-up for training or for more information, please contact Gerard Hall, liturgy@olgcva.org.

Sanctuary Candles

One of the Church's earliest traditions is to burn candles to offer prayers to God. The Sanctuary Candle (the red candle by the Tabernacle in the church and chapel), and the blue votive candle in honor of Mary (next to the Our Lady of Good Counsel statue in the chapel) are available on a weekly basis starting on Sunday.

For a donation of $25, you have the opportunity to have the candle burn for a week in memory of a deceased loved one, for a celebration or for a special intention. The intentions will be noted in the bulletin. Sign up online at http://www.olgcva.org/liturgy-worship/.

This week, Nov. 4 thru Nov. 10, the Sanctuary Candle in the chapel will burn in memory of Rosauro Norona.

The Sanctuary Candle in the church will burn in memory of Dolores Norona.

The Votive Candle near the Statue of Our Lady of Good Counsel in the chapel will burn in memory of Wyatt Lane Murchison .

The film is the shocking true story of the investigation and trial of abortion Dr. Kermit Gosnell - his 30 year killing spree and the political and media establishment that tried to cover it up. Originally investigated for illegal prescription drug sales, a raid by DEA, FBI & local law enforcement revealed crimes they could not have expected within the clinic.

Based on the NY Times Bestseller — Gosnell: The Untold Story of America's Most Prolific Serial Killer.

A Letter from the Pastor

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

In our OLGC, Salesian community, the two most often repeated maxims from our patron, St. Francis de Sales, are: "Be who you are and be that perfectly well" and "Live Jesus!" They both are important because each day we are called to be our best self and share that with our families and the OLGC community. As a Catholic, Christian community of faith, we are also called to imitate Jesus and his commandment to love God with our whole heart and to love one another as Christ has loved us.

This weekend, we ask all the members of our parish community to reflect on our stewardship of Our Lady of Good Counsel. How do we care for one another and serve the parish community? Please prayerfully reflect on how your time, energy, talents and resources can help build up our parish: Church and school. In the pews, you will find commitment cards and a list of the goals for this second year of our Parish Pastoral Plan. They are listed by the five mission areas: Liturgy and Worship, Faith Formation, Fellowship, Outreach and School as well as our Administrative Goals.

Our Lady of Good Counsel relies on the time and talents of so many of our parishioners as well as the financial support of the parish members. Thank you for your past support and thank you for your prayerful consideration this year. Our Lady of Good Counsel is a special community because of the prayer, involvement, support and generosity of all of her members. Please continue to help OLGC "Live Jesus" simply by "Being who you are, and being that thoroughly well."

Thank you!
Fr. Matt

"Do not wish to be anything save what you are and strive to be that perfectly."
-St. Francis de Sales

While discerning a possible vocation to the priesthood, it may be helpful to remember that Catholic priests belong to one of two groups: religious or diocesan. Below are some of the comparisons and contrasts between the two types:

- A bishop ordains both types of priests.
- Religious Priests serve within a province, usually a larger geographical area than a diocese. For example, the OSFS Wilmington-Philadelphia Province extends from Massachusetts to Florida. Diocesan Priests serve in one limited geographical area (a diocese or archdiocese).
- Religious Priests have a voice in choosing and evaluating the leadership in their Province or Order.
- As a Religious, priesthood is not the main goal; vowed life as a Religious is. Vowed life is first achieved after two years, when an Oblate is permitted to make the first profession of vows. A Religious vows poverty, chastity, and obedience according to the understanding of their Order/Congregation and its Constitutions. Diocesan priests do not vow poverty (they retain complete control and responsibility over their finances). They promise celibacy for the sake of the ministry to your bishop, and promise to obey the bishop and his successors. Vows are made to God; promises to a human being.
- Training takes place in the specific spirituality of the Order/Congregation. In our case, it is the spirituality of St. Francis de Sales. This spirituality will give a specific shape to your ministry and prayer life as well as serving as a bond with others in the Order or Congregation. Diocesan Priests are free to choose a spirituality which best suits him and his needs. None is determined by his membership in a diocese.
- Ministry, as a Religious Priest, can take several forms. Oblates serve as parish priests, teachers and professors, campus ministers, missionaries, chaplains, scientists, social workers, administrators and counselors. The ministry of a Diocesan Priests is sacramental (celebrating Mass, administering the sacraments, preaching, etc) and in the parish setting.
- Both Religious and Diocesan Priests can hold teaching and administrative posts in Catholic seminaries, colleges and universities, and high schools. Diocesan Priests are usually more concerned with the parochial schools attached to parish churches and with diocesan high schools.
- Religious Priests do most of the missionary work conducted by the Catholic Church in the United States and abroad.
- Religious Priests can be moved more frequently as personal and community needs dictate.
- Religious Priests expect intentional communal living. Whereas while this may happen in a parish rectory situation between Diocesan Priests, they cannot expect it. Religious Priests also have the right to expect communal support in prayer.

Vocation Awareness

Bishop Michael Burbidge talks about the large influence of Catholic schools had on his vocation, one powerful moment in his seminary experience and has advice for those considering the religious life.

Bl. Louis Brisson's Prayer for Vocations

My Divine Savior, You are the Way, the Truth, and the Life.
Give me the grace to discern how
You would have me come to You.
Give me the courage to follow You wherever You go.
Give me the grace to be so faithful that I may never lose sight of You in the Way in which You walk before me and in which I desire to follow You lovingly, even unto death.
Through Christ Our Lord.
Amen.

A Salesian Perspective: 31st SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Which is the first of all of the commandments?"

When we get right down to it, what is the most important dimension of our faith? Upon what foundation does the edifice of Christianity rest?

Jesus' answer is unambiguous: love. This love has three facets.

Love of God. Francis de Sales tells us that the reason that we love God is because of who God is: our dignity, and our destiny. "We love God because God is the most supreme and most infinite goodness."

Love of neighbor. Francis de Sales tells us: "Love of God not only commands love of neighbor, but it even produces and pours love of neighbor into our hearts. Just as we are in God's image, so the sacred love we have for one another is the true image of our heavenly love for God."

Love of self. This is the aspect that perhaps we are most tempted to overlook: after all, "self-love" sounds suspiciously like being self-centered. Why should we love ourselves? Simply and profoundly because "we are God's image and likeness," says Francis de Sales. When we are at our best all of us are the "most holy and living images of the divine."

Why is authentic love of self so critical to our love of God and neighbor? Simply, if we fail to love ourselves, how can we possibly give praise and thanks to God for creating us? If we fail to love ourselves, how can we possibly love our neighbor who is not only made in God's image, but who is fundamentally made in the image and likeness of us since we all come from the same source – God himself.

The fullness of Christian perfection – the fullness of living Christ's life – can be likened to a three-legged table. To the extent that any one of the three legs is weak, the whole table is seriously at risk. Such a table cannot hope to support any significant weight. So, too, if any one of the three loves of our lives – God, self and others – is deficient, all three will suffer, and we cannot hope to carry the weight of God's command for us to build up something of God's Kingdom here on earth.

To be sure, love is the simple answer to what is most important in our lives. In our lived experience, however, this love is never quite so simple as we might like to believe.

How is your love of God? How is your love of neighbor? How is your love of self?

Really?

We pray for...

those in the military or the support forces overseas. May the peace of God's presence and our concern for them give them strength, and may they return in safety:
